

BROCCOLI LOVERS hate waste

Whatever food you love, we can help you waste less and save up to £50 a month.

To celebrate the start of the Love Food Hate Waste campaign, Cheshire West and Chester Council and partners want you to send us your best recipes made from leftover food that may otherwise end up in the bin.

Winners will receive a 20 page Food Lovers cookery book signed by tv chef Richard Fox as seen on Ready Steady Cook and the BBC Food and Drink show.

The recipe book will feature your winning recipe idea and winners will be able to take part in a Ready Steady Cook type challenge at one of the Love Food, Hate Waste roadshows. Winners will also receive a family pass to Chester's Food, Drink and Lifestyle Festival 2010.

Deadline for competition entries is Friday, 22 January 2010. To enter please visit: cheshirewestandchester.gov.uk or call 0300 123 7 026 for an application form.
